STATUTE

For Participants of Fair Ventures Organized by the LZD Rogow

1. General resolutions

- The expressions used in the Statute mean:
 - LZD the fair organizer: International Forest Fair „Rogow 2015“
 - Exhibitor any fair participant;
 - fair fair events, exhibitions, etc. organized by LZD;
 - Application-contract a contract for fair participation,
 - Statute regulations for participants of the LZD fairs.
- The rules of this statute refer to participants of fair ventures organized by LZD, and are binding upon all exhibitors.
- The Statute constitutes an integral part of a contract on participation in fair.
- Additional detailed resolutions issued by LZD shall constitute an integral part of the Statute.

2. Rules of participation, conditions and terms of payment

- The condition of participation in the fair, is presenting in the seat of LZD filled in and signed „Application-contract“ in the term specified in the document.
- The „Application-contract“ should be signed by a person authorized to represent an Exhibitor.
- All consequences resulting from improper filling in the „Application-forms“, are born by an Exhibitor.
- LZD determines admitting to participation in fair. LZD may refuse to accept the application. In such a case, the organizer informs the applicant in writing of his refusal.
- In case of refusal to accept the application by LZD, the applicant is entitled to recover all paid amounts. He is not entitled to other claims in virtue of this.
- Entering into a contract is at the moment of LZD confirmation of participation in the venture.
- Together with application of participation, an Exhibitor is obliged to pay at the bank account of LZD, a prepayment at the amount of 50% of total value, including VAT, resulting from the „Application-contract“. Lack of prepayment releases LZD from order's realization. In that case, an Exhibitor will pay LZD a contractual fine in the amount of 50% of the payment for participation.
- An Exhibitor is obliged to pay the remaining part of amount due (50%) resulting from the „Application-contract“ no later than 14 days before opening the venture. Copies of proofs of payment shall be required at transference of a stand.
- The lack of full payment of amount due resulting from the „Application-contract“ in the term stated in point 2.8 is equal with resigning from participation in the Fair together with consequences stated in point 4.2.
- LZD gives Exhibitors a discount according to the conditions specified in detailed resolutions. The discount is given if the terms of the Statute are observed.
- Services completed according to an Exhibitor's request, and not included in the „Application-contract“ (e.g. telephone calls, additional equipment) will be included on a separate Invoice at fair's end within 14 days. The value of such services is not subject to any discounts.

3. Participation withdrawal

- In case of participation withdrawal in the period longer than 21 days before the date of opening the venture, only amounts above the prepayment defined in Statute are subject to reimbursement.
- In case of participation withdrawal in the period shorter or equal to 21 days before the date of venture's opening, an Exhibitor is obliged to pay the full amount, resulting from the „Application-contract“.
- Withdrawal by an Exhibitor its participation in fair, should be done in written form. The date of coming in a letter to the seat of LZD, is regarded as the date of withdrawal.

4. Renouncement of participation in fair

- Not taking over the ordered stand in the term defined in the Statute or leaving it while venture duration, is understood as renouncement of participation.
- An Exhibitor, who will not adhere to the contract by non-participating in fair or participating in part-time, is obliged to pay the full amount resulting from the „Application-contract“, and all documented costs born by the Organizer.

5. Organization of exhibition

- The Organizer secures realization of a stand according to an Exhibitor's order in basic standard.
- Individual project of exhibiting area's building proposed by an Exhibitor needs LZD acceptance. In case the project does not stick to the standard project, the Organizer may realize it charging an Exhibitor with amount agreed with him.
- In case the stand is not realized by the Organizer, his project has to be accepted by the Commissioner of the Fair LZD.
- The Organizer reserves for himself the right to change stand's location, in case the allocated place does not meet technical conditions of the project or it's realization is not consistent with building and fire-fighting regulations.
- Construction and furnishings of the stand is consistent with the „Application-contract“ and realized at Exhibitor's cost and risk.
- LZD reserves for himself the exclusive right to stock with everything necessary exterior stand's walls.
- In the period of exhibition's preparation and its liquidation, the fair areas are thrown open to an Exhibitor from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. In reasonable cases the Organizer may agree to continue works in different hours.
- The Organizer throws the stand to an Exhibitor 24 hours before opening the venture. Transference of a stand takes place on the basis of delivery-acceptance act in hours mentioned in art.5.7. Non-compliance with this requirement may be treated as renouncement of participation in fair.
- Exhibitors, which stands are made by companies other than LZD, are obliged to finish works latest 12 hours before opening the fair. Time-schedule of works is determined by the Clerk of the Hall LZD.
- Stand's liquidation should take place latest 24 hours after fair's closing, however it cannot be performed at the moment of venture's duration.
- It is not allowed to dismantle the exhibition and to remove exhibits before an official fair's closing. For such breach of prohibition, an Exhibitor will be charged with contractual fine amounting to 20% of due amount for participation in the venture.
- Having dismantled the exhibits, an Exhibitor is obliged to arrange the stand and to transmit it to the Organizer in an official record. In case of leaving the stand by an Exhibitor without transmitting it to the Organizer, a committee withdrawal of a stand will take place, and the acceptance act shall constitute the basis for clearings between the Organizer and an Exhibitor.
- In case of non-vacation of exhibiting area in the term defined in art.5.10, LZD is given the right to displace the remained goods at an Exhibitor's cost and risk, even in case, if it would not meet the requirements vital and defined by their owner.

6. Rules paining to the observance of regulations

- An Exhibitor bears full responsibility for damages resulting to functioning his appliances and people employed by him while preparation, duration and liquidation of fair.
- Exhibits cannot be placed in arteries of traffic adjacent to a stand, and presentations of devices cannot hinder or preclude safe moving of participants and public, as well as create a disturbance.
- It is forbidden to place prices on exhibits.
- The Organizer reserves himself the right to refuse permission to lay on exhibits he regards to be dangerous or burdensome.
- An Exhibitor is obliged to remove from his stand and territory packages of it exhibits before opening the venture.
- Repair of damages or change of stand's interior decoration may be performed only when fair are closed for visitors.
- An Exhibitor's stand maintenance staff is obliged to carry, during the fair, official entry cards received from LZD.
- The range of exhibit's goods is defined by an Exhibitor, however it has to be consistent with the presented the „Application-contract“.
- In case when the stand is occupied by two or more Exhibitors, it should be determined, which of them is the exclusive representative as to LZD.
- An Exhibitor is obliged to comply with Statute and rules pertaining to the observance of regulations issued by LZD. He is also responsible for all infringements from his own side, persons employed by him and co-exhibitors.
- In the fair's opening hours, a stand should be rendered accessible to the visitors. Temporary closing of a stand needs LZD permission.
- In the time of fair's duration, an Exhibitor may abide at the fair's area not longer than for one hour outside the period provided for sightseeing.

7. Catalogue, advertisement, photography and film

- Every Exhibitor is obliged to place a payable registration in the venture's catalogue, and has the right to place a trade advertisement in this catalogue.
- Every company, which note or advertisement has been placed in the catalogue, has the right to receive one copy of the catalogue free of charge.
- he Organizer bears no responsibility for consequence of mistakes and omissions in the catalogue.
- An Exhibitor has the right to advertise his goods only in the exterior of his own stand unless he disturbs the run of other participants' work.
- An advertisement outside own stand is payable, and needs the Organizer's permission.
- Sonic advertisement is payable and can be presented only through the mediation of fair's radio studio.
- LZD reserves for himself the right to film and photograph stands and to use these materials for his own purposes without additional obligations as to Exhibitors and third parties.
- An Exhibitor has the right to photograph and to film its own stand unless these activities will not cause disturbances in organization and fair's course.
- Photographing and filming fair objects, stands and exhibits by third persons, need LZD permission.

8. Insurance, fair's protection

- LZD bears no responsibility for accidents of people and damages of exhibits present at fair's area before, after and during the fair, as well as for damages caused by personnel, visitors and third persons.
- The Organizer is not responsible for damages caused by theft, fire, floods, thunders, explosions, breaks in water, power and gas supply, and other reasons of this type, as well as Force Majeure.
- An Exhibitor is obliged to notify immediately LZD of every damage.
- An Exhibitor is obliged to comply with orders given by the Organizer referring to fire fighting protection and other orders considering safety.
- LZD secures supervision on fair objects outside fair's opening hours.
- Exhibitors are advised to insure civil liability resulting from participation in fair, as well as exhibits' insurance.

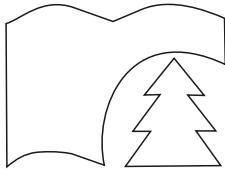

9. Claims and complaints

- All complaints and claims resulting from participation in fair, should be laid in a written form latest till closing the fair. After closing the fair, complaints shall not be taken into consideration.
- All agreements between an Exhibitor and LZD, as well as all decisions resulting from them and statements, need a written form otherwise null and void.

10. Final decisions

- Participants taking part in ventures organized by LZD, are obliged to comply with rules in force, and to conform to this Statute and detailed resolutions. Participants of ventures not complying with these conditions, bear responsibility for all damages suffered by the Organizer and third persons.
- The Organizer reserves for himself the right – in case of arising circumstances independent of him (particularly caused by Force Majeure including change of custom law, lax law, course of exchange, and state and local authorities' decisions)- to withdraw, shorten, postpone, change payments, change the way of organization, or partial closing of the venture. In these cases, fair's participants will have no right to receive compensation or to reduce participation's fee.
- In case of inefficiency of particular Statute's regulations, all the remaining regulations remain in force.
- All disputes arising from participation in fairs shall be settled by objectively appropriate courts.
- In matters not regulated by this Statute provisions of the Civil Code shall apply.
- The Statute is in force from 20.01.2015.
